

Energy Imbalance Market Governance Review

Joint CREPC-WIRAB Meeting
April 18, 2019

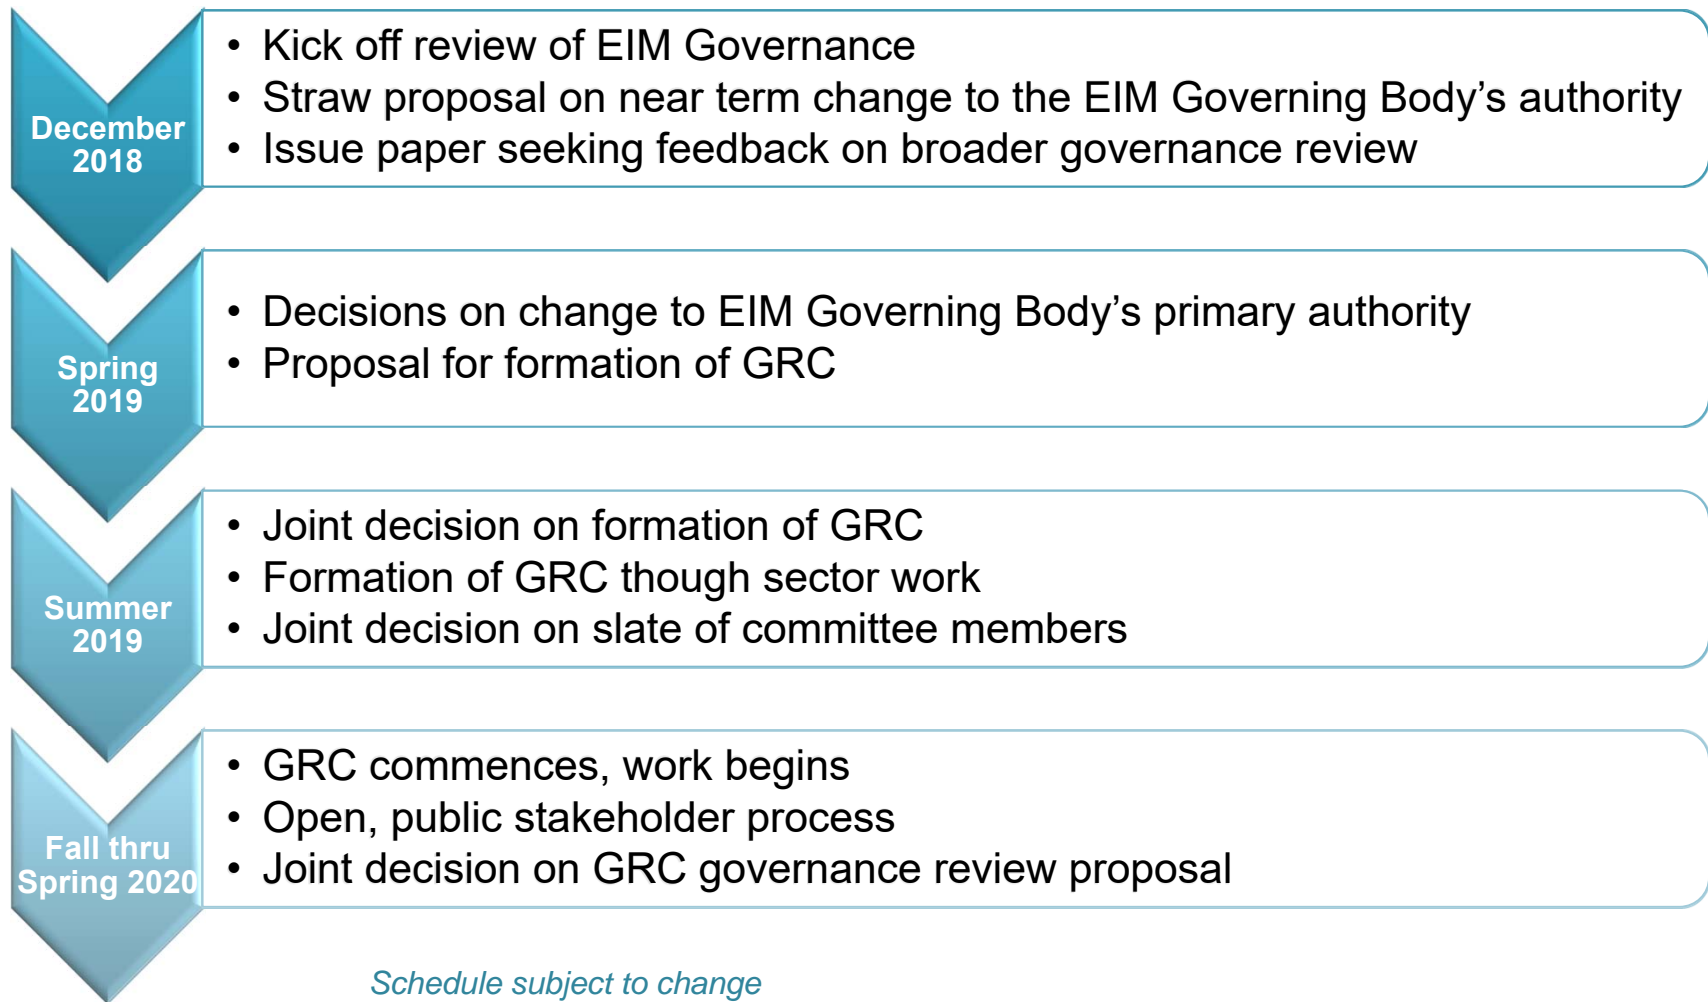

Stacey Crowley
Vice President, External and Customer Affairs

CAISO PUBLIC

EIM governance structure provides open process and broad regional engagement

EIM governance review will follow public stakeholder process

Schedule subject to change

- Consideration of moving forward with regional Day Ahead market will also impact schedule

Next Steps

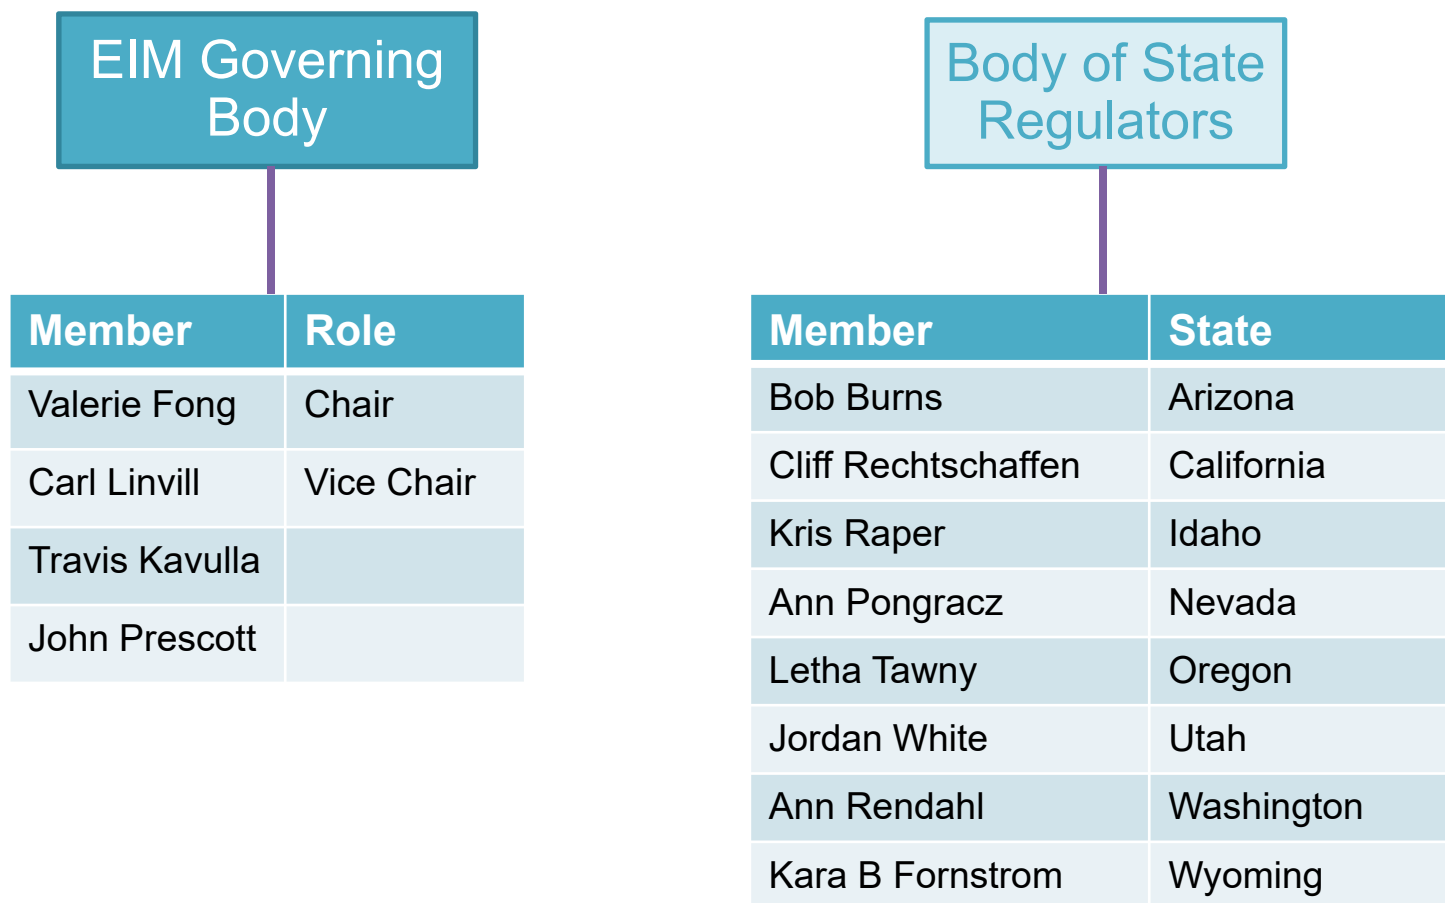

- Stakeholder written comments are due April 29, 2019
 - Stakeholders should submit written comments to initiativecomments@caiso.com
- Revisions to proposal based on stakeholder feedback will be posted with opportunity for comment prior to joint decision by EIM Governing Body and Board of Governors

Current lists of Governing Body and Committee members

APPENDIX

EIM governance structure (1 of 3)

EIM governance structure (2 of 3)

Nominating Committee

Member	Sector
David Rubin	EIM Entities
Catherine Hackney	Participating Transmission Owners
Will Mitchell	Suppliers/Marketers, ESPs
Randy Howard	Publicly Owned Utilities
Ann Rendahl	Body of State Regulators
Carl Linvill	EIM Governing Body
Angelina Galiteva	ISO Board of Governors
Jennifer Gardner, Chair	Public Interest/Consumer Advocate

Non-voting members

EIM governance structure (3 of 3)

Regional Issues Forum

Liaison	Sector
Pam Sporborg	Transmission Owning Utility
Matt Lecar	Transmission Owning Utility
Bob Kahn	IPP/Power Marketer
Ryan Leonard	IPP/Power Marketer
Cameron Yourkowski	Public Interest/Consumer Advocate
Cheryl Murray	Public Interest/Consumer Advocate
Tony Braun	Publicly Owned Utility
Clay Mac Arthur	Publicly Owned Utility
Suzanne Cooper	Neighboring BA
Therese Hampton	Neighboring BA